Data Protection Notice

The European Education and Culture Executive Agency ("EACEA") is committed to preserving your privacy. All personal data are dealt with in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725 on the protection of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies¹ ("the data protection regulation").

The following Data Protection Notice outlines the policies by which the EACEA collects, manages and uses the personal data of the concerned individuals within the context of the Erasmus+: International dimension - Focus on Sub-Saharan Africa, taking place on 01/12/2022. The event will be organised via Webex, and certain personal data may appear in the recording. The event will be recorded and the recording will be published on the internet.

1. Who is responsible for processing your personal data (data controller)?

The controller is the Education Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency, BE-1049 Brussels
The person designated as being in charge of the processing operation is the Head of Unit EACEA.A. 4 – International Capacity Building

Email: EACEA-EPLUS-CBHE@ec.europa.eu.

2. Which personal data are processed?

Mandatory data for the event organisation: your contact details, i.e. title, first name, last name, position/function, name of organisation, email address, city and country.

Optional data: voice and images of participants as part of the video and audio recording of the event.

- For speakers: first name, surname, images and voice as the event will be audio and video recorded

Attention of participants is drawn to the possibility to:

- provide, to the extent possible, anonymised data to register to the event or to submit any question to the Agency via the Webex chat during the event or via e-mail after the event (corporate email address without name e.g. contact@companyname.com).
- Turn-off your audio and camera, if you do not want your personal data appearing into audio and video recording.

3. For which purpose do we process your data?

The primary purpose of the collection of personal data is for the organisation and management of the given event, in particular for processing registration requests and sending appropriate information to participants such as web-links of the event as well as for the collection of feedback after the event through a survey. Participants may also submit any questions to the Agency via the Webex chat box available during the meeting.

In addition, the purpose of the processing is also for:

- Recording of the event and publication: the event will be audio and video recorded for the purpose of sharing experience and will be published on the EACEA website. We will record on video speakers' presentations and their answers to participants' questions. When asking or replying questions, participants can either use video and/or audio or the chat function in Webex. If they choose to voluntarily use video and/or audio, participants will be recorded accordingly.
- Invitations to future similar events (upon consent) that EACEA may organise: EACEA will send you information on future similar events during a period of 5 years.

4. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data may be given on a need-to know basis to the following recipients:

- EACEA: Staff members of the unit of the controller, Director and Heads of Department,
- European Commission: relevant DGs in particular the Directorate-General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC), Directorate-General for Neighbourhood and Enlargement Negotiations (DG NEAR) and Directorate-General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA).
