Upskilling Pathways:
New Opportunities for Adults

The Council Recommendation of 19 December 2016 on Upskilling Pathways: New Opportunities for Adults

The upskilling pathways shall provide the low skilled adults with the opportunity, according to their individual needs, to:

- acquire a minimum level of literacy, numeracy and digital competence; and/or
- acquire a wider set of skills, knowledge and competences, relevant for the labour market and active participation in society, by making progress towards a qualification at EQF level 3 or 4

Upskilling Pathways

- + supporting measures such as:
- Motivation and outreach measures
- Guidance and mentoring
- Professional development of education staff

Aim of the priority:

Contribute to increase the supply of upskilling opportunities and their take up by low skilled adults

Contribute to practical and integrated delivery of the Upskilling Pathways steps supported by outreach and guidance measures

Contribute to increase the coherence among existing measures for low skilled adults

Ensure that all relevant actors are mobilised and engaged in the delivery of the Upskilling Pathways Recommendation.

Success factors

A partnership approach should be ensured, which promotes effective coordination and long-term collaboration between the stakeholders involved in planning, implementing and monitoring Upskilling Pathways.

---

The projects shall include a plan for the roll-out of its outcomes/results in the participating countries, and include proposals for the further development of tailored support and learning for this specific target group.
